

THE ROBERT H. N. HO FAMILY FOUNDATION
FELLOWSHIP AND GRANT COMPETITIONS IN BUDDHIST STUDIES
2020-21

Administered by the American Council of Learned Societies

The American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS) invites applications for The Robert H. N. Ho Family Foundation Program in Buddhist Studies. In cooperation with the Foundation, ACLS offers an integrated set of fellowship and grant competitions to expand the understanding and interpretation of Buddhist thought in scholarship and society, to strengthen international networks of Buddhist studies, and to increase the visibility of innovative currents in those studies.

Dissertation Fellowships

One-year stipends to PhD candidates for full-time preparation of dissertations

Postdoctoral Fellowships

Two-year stipends to recent recipients of the PhD for residence at a university for research, writing, and teaching

Critical Editions and Scholarly Translations Grants

Collaborative and individual grants for the creation of critical editions, translation of canonical texts, and translation of scholarly works

Research Fellowships

One-year stipends for scholars who hold a PhD degree, with no restrictions on time from the PhD

New Professorships

Multi-year grants to colleges and universities to establish or expand teaching in Buddhist studies

These are global competitions. There are no restrictions as to the location of work proposed, the citizenship of applicants, or the languages of the final written product. Applications must be submitted in English. Complete program information and applications are available at www.acls.org/programs/buddhist-studies/.

Deadline for applications for Fellowships and Grants: November 16, 2020

Deadline for institutional applications for New Professorships: January 8, 2021
