

The Robert H. N. Ho Family Foundation

Program Description

The Robert H. N. Ho Family Foundation Dissertation Fellowships in Buddhist Studies provide stipends to PhD candidates for full time preparation of dissertations. The ten-month fellowship period may be used for fieldwork, archival research, analysis of findings, or for writing after research is complete. There are two types of support: research fellowships for fieldwork or archival investigations and writing fellowships for use after research is complete to write the dissertation.

All topics, periods, and approaches in Buddhist Studies are welcome.

FELLOWSHIP DETAILS

- Stipend: $35,000 and an award supplement of up to $5,000 for childcare/elder care, health insurance, learned society conference attendance, or related professional training.
- Tenure: 10 consecutive months, starting by September 30, 2025, devoting full time to the dissertation. No other employment is permitted during the fellowship period.
- The total award should be used for expenses associated with the fellowship work, not for tuition or other university fees. Home universities are requested to waive fees for fellows while allowing access to university facilities during the fellowship year. If university policy or regulations prevent the university from following this procedure, the university should be willing to negotiate with ACLS some other mutually acceptable formula that will avoid the necessity for the fellow to use the fellowship stipend for university fees. This fellowship cannot be held concurrently with any other fellowship or grant. University administrators may find more information here (https://www.acls.org/information-for-institutional-administrators/).

SPECIFICATION OF RESEARCH OR WRITING FELLOWSHIPS

Applicants must apply for one of these two categories of support. The proposal should state clearly how much work on the dissertation has already been accomplished and in what specific ways progress would be advanced by a fellowship.

Applications for research fellowships should identify the research question(s), the sources to be investigated, criteria by which relevant information will be selected, the location of the project in the disciplinary literature, the methodology and approach to the subject matter, and tentative conclusions.

Applications for writing fellowships should state the main thesis or claim, review the sources investigated and secondary literature consulted, and indicate, if possible, an outline of chapters. The proposal should also state what materials have been collected, how research questions might have been answered or modified, and the direction that analysis will take once writing has begun.

ACLS selection committees understand the problem posed by timing – often, applications for writing are composed in the midst of fieldwork or archival research, at a time when all relevant materials have not yet been collected and the dissertation’s argument might be still inchoate. Applicants should address this problem directly in the proposal, describing as accurately as possible what they have accomplished as of the application deadline and how they envision their dissertations taking shape during the period of the writing fellowship.

ELIGIBILITY

- Pursuit of the PhD degree at an accredited university anywhere in the world.
- ABD (All But Dissertation) status or equivalent by April 15, 2025. ABD status indicates completion of all doctorate coursework requirements and comprehensive exams for a PhD degree. Upon reaching ABD status, PhD students become PhD candidates and focus on research and writing of a dissertation and defending a doctoral thesis. ACLS will require final round applicants to obtain official university confirmations in Spring 2025.
- The application must be written in English by the applicant.
- There are no restrictions on the location of work proposed or the citizenship/residence of applicants.
- Work proposed must be in the humanities or interpretive social sciences (<https://www.acls.org/faqs/acls-faq/>).

APPLICATION GUIDELINES

Completed applications must be submitted on this website no later than 9:00 PM Eastern Standard Time on December 3, 2024.

Applications must include:

- An applicant's statement describing the intellectual trajectory and experiences that brought the applicant to the current stage of academic career and that motivate plans for the future (no more than two double-spaced pages in Arial or Helvetica 11-point font). ACLS is committed to inclusion, equity, and diversity as integral components of merit that enhance the scholarly enterprise. It is a priority of this program that cohorts of fellows and grantees be broadly inclusive of different backgrounds, cultures, and any aspects that make one unique. In Buddhist Studies we seek balance in regard to citizenship and university affiliation, as well as in languages, topics, Buddhist traditions, and locations of research. Please use the applicant's statement to note any relevant information about your personal background and/or ways in which your proposed research addresses issues related to inclusion, equity, and diversity.

EVALUATION CRITERIA

- Significance of the topic and its potential contribution to Buddhist Studies.
- Coherence and cogency of presentation.
- Feasibility of the plan of work.

Instructions

Instructions

You may make as many visits to your application as you wish, and revise any information in your application until it has been submitted. In order to be considered, your application must be complete and in SUBMITTED status at 9:00 PM Eastern Standard Time on December 3, 2024.

This application consists of two parts: the application form itself and the uploaded documents (see PROPOSAL UPLOAD).

BEFORE BEGINNING the application form, please read the instructions regarding the PROPOSAL UPLOAD, as well as the following technical instructions.

A. HOW TO SAVE AND SUBMIT YOUR DATA

1. Do not use your browser's "BACK" or "FORWARD" buttons for navigation. Instead, use the menu on the left to navigate between screens or the "SAVE AND CONTINUE" button at the bottom of each screen to take you to the next application screen.
2. You must SAVE each time you leave a screen. If you do not click on SAVE, anything entered since you last hit SAVE on that screen will be lost. (Any work from a previous session will be retained, but any new entries will be lost.) The SAVE button is on the bottom of your screen.
3. You may work on your application in as many sessions as you wish, and the status of your application will be IN PROCESS until you submit it. Once you are satisfied that your application is complete, you must go to the SUBMIT APPLICATION screen and select SUBMIT APPLICATION. Once your application has been SUBMITTED, it cannot revert to IN PROCESS status.
4. When you have completed your application, pause to check it one last time. We strongly suggest that you print and read your application before submitting it, so that you can be sure there are no further revisions you wish to make. Your print copy should include your uploaded document.
5. Your application status bar must show SUBMITTED at 9:00 PM, Eastern Standard Time on December 3, 2024, in order for it to be considered. ACLS will take no responsibility for applications that are not in SUBMITTED status at the deadline. Once your application has been SUBMITTED, even if it was submitted before the final deadline, no changes will be permitted.
6. We strongly urge you to print out and save a copy of the final version of your SUBMITTED application. Your print copy should include your uploaded documents. You can print your application until January 15, 2025.

B. HOW TO ENTER DATA

1. You may begin completing the application at any section.
2. What you type into the form is exactly what will be seen by our reviewers. Therefore, please fill out the form carefully, paying attention to spelling, punctuation, and grammar. (For instance, do not use all caps.)
3. Text boxes will hold only a limited amount of text. Where longer answers are permitted, the number of available characters will normally be indicated. We suggest that you type rather than paste your response. If you paste your response, be sure your character count does not exceed the limit: excess text may appear on the screen but will not print and will not be visible to reviewers. Examine your print application to be sure your response is complete.

4. Dates should always be entered in the format mm/yyyy or mm/dd/yyyy where indicated. Where an entry continues into the present, please simply leave the ending date blank (mm/yyyy - [blank]).
5. Begin typing all answers at the extreme left-hand side of the response area or box; do not leave a space or indent at the beginning of your answer.
6. In all dollar amount fields, use only digits. Please do not use the dollar sign or commas.
7. Please avoid using non-Roman characters in the application form as the system cannot process certain characters. Our selection committees understand the technical limitations of the system. Within the Proposal Upload, you may use non-Roman characters, but please view it after uploading to be sure these characters convert properly.

C. HOW TO GET HELP

Proposal Upload

Proposal Upload

To complete your application package, in addition to the application form, you must upload the following items: a proposal, optional additional materials, a bibliography, and an applicant's statement. Your proposal, optional additional materials, bibliography, and applicant's statement should be uploaded as one continuous document in this order. In order to be reviewed, documents must adhere to the specified page limits and formatting.

1A) PROPOSAL

The proposal will be the basis of the evaluation of the project. Title your proposal in a brief, descriptive way and label sections of your narrative as appropriate to assist readers. The narrative should explain, briefly but specifically, what you plan to do and why, as well as describe progress already made. It should discuss the significance of this work within your specific discipline as well to the field of Buddhist Studies. Please balance the description of specific work plans against an overview of your goals and the contribution this project will make to your discipline and to the field.

Applications for research fellowships should identify the research question(s), the sources to be investigated, criteria by which relevant information will be selected, the location of the project in the disciplinary literature, the methodology and approach to the subject matter, and tentative conclusions.

Applications for writing fellowships should state the main thesis or claim, review the sources investigated and secondary literature consulted, and indicate, if possible, an outline of chapters. The proposal should also state what materials have been collected, how research questions might have been answered or modified, and the direction that analysis will take once writing has begun.

ACLS selection committees understand the problem posed by timing - often, applications for writing are composed in the midst of fieldwork or archival research, at a time when all relevant materials have not yet been collected and the dissertation's argument might be still inchoate. Applicants should address this problem directly in the proposal, describing as accurately as possible what they have managed to accomplish as of the application deadline and how they envision their dissertations taking shape during the period of the writing fellowship.

USEFUL GUIDELINES

The proposal should address all six points. The applicant might find it useful to label sections with the six headings, but this is not required.

1. Main Thesis: The principal argument or problem guiding the proposed research and writing.
2. Body: The research problem in more detail with a justification of the research focus and approach. What is already known about the problem and what more needs to be known?

3. Literature and sources: The proposed topic placed in the context of existing literature and potential new sources. What will be the criteria for determining which sources are relevant? How will the project extend, modify, or challenge existing scholarship?
4. Methods: A detailed description of the methods to be used. How will they be deployed to address the main thesis or argument of the project?
5. Significance: An explanation of the importance of the proposed work to central issues in Buddhist Studies, to other disciplines, and to humanities scholarship in general.
6. Work plan: The concluding section of the essay should present a plan of work with a timeline for the research and/or writing during the fellowship period. How much has the applicant already accomplished on the project and how much remains to be done? What steps are anticipated during the fellowship period? What is the expected result? The work plan must specify the desired start and end dates for the fellowship period and must be able to be accomplished within 10 consecutive months.

The proposal must not exceed five double-spaced pages in Arial or Helvetica 11-point font.

1B) OPTIONAL ADDITIONAL MATERIALS

Applicants may submit images, musical scores, or other similar supporting non-text materials.

The additional materials must not exceed two pages.

1C) BIBLIOGRAPHY

The bibliography should provide an overview of essential references for your project, and should balance the various sorts of key materials being used.

The bibliography must not exceed two pages, with double-spaces between entries in Arial or Helvetica 11-point.

1D) APPLICANT'S STATEMENT

The applicant's statement should describe the intellectual trajectory and experiences that brought you to the current stage of academic career and that motivate plans for the future.

ACLS is committed to inclusion, equity, and diversity as integral components of merit that enhance the scholarly enterprise. It is a priority of this program that cohorts of fellows and grantees be broadly inclusive of different backgrounds, cultures, and any aspects that make one unique. In Buddhist Studies we seek balance in regard to citizenship and university affiliation, as well as in languages, topics, Buddhist traditions, and locations of research. Please use the applicant's statement to note any relevant information about your personal background and/or ways in which your proposed research addresses issues related to inclusion, equity, and diversity.

The applicant's statement must not exceed two double-spaced pages in Arial or Helvetica 11-point font.

2) DOCUMENT SPECIFICATIONS

- Items 1A, 1B, 1C, and 1D must be uploaded as one continuous document.
- Margins must be at least one inch on all sides.
- Use Arial or Helvetica 11-point font.
- There is a 3 MB limit on the size of your upload.
- Your application will be converted to Portable Document Format (.pdf). Keep formatting simple to avoid problems in the converted document.

- If your proposal includes non-Roman characters, please view it after uploading to be sure these characters convert properly. If not, you may have to convert your document to .pdf and upload again to resolve formatting problems.
- Use the header/footer function to number pages. Do not type the numbers directly into each page of your document text. You may number pages consecutively throughout the entire document, or you may number the different sections separately. Page numbers are most helpful on the proposal, so you may omit them on the other items if you wish.
- Please adhere to the word-count and page limits listed above. Note: The .pdf conversion process can cause some slight formatting changes. If your converted document exceeds the limit only slightly (but your original document did not), please do not be concerned.
- If you have difficulty with your upload, consult the FAQ/technical support (<http://localhost:61491/programs/faq/default.aspx#tech>) before contacting OFA HELP.

Documents must adhere to the page limits and formatting requirements to be reviewed.

3) INSTRUCTIONS FOR UPLOADING YOUR DOCUMENTS

Your items should be collated in this order—proposal, optional additional materials, bibliography, and applicant’s statement—and submitted as one file.

Files will be accepted in the following formats ONLY:

Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx), Text only (.txt), or Adobe Portable Document Format (.pdf). Your file MUST include the appropriate extension (e.g., ".doc"); if you are on a Mac, you will need to enter the extension as part of the file name.

The button below will allow you to upload your document. You will be able to browse your computer system to select the file to be uploaded. When you have completed the upload, your file name should appear under "FILE UPLOAD STATUS" below as a blue link. You can confirm that the file has uploaded successfully by clicking on the blue link and viewing your file. Sometimes the process takes a little time: if your file name does not appear as a blue link, refresh the screen using the refresh button in your browser tool bar, or simply leave this screen and come back to it.

As long as your application is still "In Process," you can upload revised versions of your document by simply repeating the upload process and selecting the new/revised version. (This may have the same file name or a new file name.) When you click on "Upload Document" the revised version will be recorded and the old version erased.
